

Rik Roberts – Comedy Bio

Clean comedian and creative keynote speaker Rik Roberts grew up in Kentucky. He farmed tobacco alongside his father from an early age. Later, as a teenager he worked for former Kentucky Wildcat and NBA Star Dan Issel on his Thoroughbred horse farm “Courtland”.

After earning a degree in communications from Bethany College, Rik worked for Simon & Schuster in Columbus, OH. He joined a nationally touring comedy troupe “Midwest Comedy Tool & Die [MCTD] in 1992. Shortly thereafter, he decided to jump head first into stand-up comedy. He now has nearly 30 years of headlining experience across the United States and abroad.

His comedy is 100% clean and appropriate for each audience. He’s appeared in his own episode of DryBar Comedy which features the nation's top "clean" comedians. He also appeared on “PureFlix Clean Comedy All-Stars”, Chonda Pierce’s “Stand-Up for Families”.

Rik is the resident warm-up comedian for “Huckabee” on TBN. He is the International spokesman for “Bin There, Dump That”. And he is the host of the long running “School of Laughs” podcast.

His love of all things country led to him being featured on CMT's "20 Greatest Redneck Moments". He also was a writer and performer on “The Henry Cho Comedy Show” on Great American Country.

Rik is a member of the National Speakers Association and is a former President of the Christian Comedy Association.

Rik spends his time off stage writing comedy songs – many of which are aired daily on SiriusXM radio’s LaughUSA and Jeff and Larry’s Comedy Round Up channels. Of his 7 comedy CD’s, two are still available for purchase on RikRoberts.com.

Rik is a proud father of two and happy husband at home in Nashville, TN.
