

Introductions:

For the Mayberry Method speech when Rik is entering as Barney Fife to surprise the audience ...

The Emcee can begin an introduction...

"Our Speaker tonight is going to help us find some ways to become more focused and productive. He comes to us all the way from a small little town where he serves in the town choir and also is a Deputy Sheriff ..."

And I'll come in and interrupt and take it from there.

For the Mayberry Method speech when Rik is delivering the speech as himself (not dressed as Barney Fife)

"Our speaker today will present a program designed to eliminate distractions, increase productivity and help us set clearer goals. He is a member of the National Speakers Association and resides in Nashville Tennessee with his wife and two children. Please welcome Rik Roberts."
